August 2017

Old Germany Oktoberfest, Sep 2, 2017, Choctaw, Ok.

Join 50,000 of your closest friends (not all at once) for lots of German beer (some you can't normally get here), German cars and live music. Entering the car show gets you parking up close, and a T-shirt, for the nominal entry fee.

The Volkswagen Club is in charge this year, but we assume the schedule will be about the same as usual, registration starting around 1:00 pm, with awards around 5:00-6:00 pm.

We have been promised there will be no helicopter rides close to the show this year.

See OldGermany.com for Oktoberfest details.

No Excuses X. Oct 14-15, 2017, Hallett Motor Racing Circuit, Jennings, Ok.

Yes, the Tenth Annual No Excuses High Performance Drivers Education, has grown into a Regional event. Sunbelt, Kansas City, Great Plains and Lone Star clubs join together to host this event at one of the most exciting and technically challenging tracks in the country.

HPDEs are about improving your driving skills, and are not in any way considered racing. Drivers are placed in run groups according to experience level (none required), and both classroom and in-car instruction is provided. This is also a great opportunity to get together with folks from other chapters and make new friends.

Approved Advanced Students and Instructors will also be running on Friday. There may be an instructor school taking place starting on Thursday, for experienced drivers looking to move up to instructing.

This event requires BMW CCA membership, a current SNELL approved helmet (2010 or newer), and a pre-event car inspection, so don't delay until the last minute. Get event details including pricing, forms, hotel, registration and payment at Motorsportreg.com.
